

THE ANGLICAN PARISH OF ST STEPHEN AND ST MARY

MOUNT WAVERLEY

WELCOME

Twenty-second Sunday after Pentecost

21 October 2018

Collect for Peace

*O God, the author and lover of peace, in knowledge of whom stands our eternal life,
whose service is perfect freedom;
defend your servants in all assaults of our enemies, that,
surely trusting in your defence,
we may not fear the power of any adversaries,
through the might of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.*

(United Nations, inaugurated 1945)

At Worship Today:

7.45 am (Book of Common Prayer)
Preaching and Presiding: Revd Dianne

10.30 am (Contemporary Eucharist)
Preaching and Presiding: Revd Dianne

God of unchangeable power, when the heaven and earth were made,
the morning stars sang together
and the host of heaven shouted for joy:
open our eyes to the wonders of creation and teach us to use all things for good,
to the honour of your glorious name;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Sanctuary bell will be rung 5 minutes before the service begins to observe a time of quiet.

TIS 531 Sent Forth By God's Blessing

People of all Christian churches, who are communicants of their own church, are invited to share Holy Communion with us

First Reading: Job 38.1-7

The Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind:
2 'Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge? 3 Gird up your loins like a man, I will question you, and you shall declare to me.

4 'Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell me, if you have understanding.

5 Who determined its measurements—surely you know! Or who stretched the line upon it?

6 On what were its bases sunk, or who laid its cornerstone 7 when the morning stars sang together and all the heavenly beings shouted for joy?

Second Reading: Hebrews 5.1-10

Every high priest chosen from among mortals is put in charge of things pertaining to God on their behalf, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. 2 He is able to deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is subject to weakness; 3 and because of this he must offer sacrifice for his own sins as well as for those of the people. 4 And one does not presume to take this honour, but takes it only when called by God, just as Aaron was.

5 So also Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him, 'You are my Son, today I have begotten you'; 6 as he says also in another place, 'You are a priest for ever, according to the order of Melchizedek.'

7 In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. 8 Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; 9 and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, 10 having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

Gospel: Mark 10.35-45

35 James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to Jesus and said to him, 'Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you.' 36 And he said to them, 'What is it you want me to do for you?' 37 And they said to him, 'Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory.' 38 But Jesus said to them, 'You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?' 39 They replied, 'We are able.' Then Jesus said to them, 'The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; 40 but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared.'

41 When the ten heard this, they began to be angry with James and John. 42 So Jesus called them and said to them, 'You know that among the Gentiles those whom they recognize as their rulers lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them. 43 But it is not so among you; but whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, 44 and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all. 45 For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many.'

Our next meeting is on Monday 22nd October @ 1-30pm in the Parish Centre. After our beginning Mothers' Union Devotions, we will have a Bring and Share Session. So bring something to share. This could be a recipe, a craft idea, some information which may benefit others, a favourite song/hymn, a photograph, a biscuit or slice you have made... etc. The idea of this session is for us to enjoy each other's company after a busy year and to talk about our plans and ideas for MU in the coming year. We have extra MU diaries and calendars available for purchase at this meeting. This may be a good meeting for those thinking about joining MU to attend. Afternoon tea will be served.

Child safe compliance

Thanks to all who have been signing Code of Conduct declarations, getting Working with Children cards and police checks.

If you have received your police check, could you please bring it in for us to take a copy? We don't receive them directly.

For those yet to do their police check, we're moving to 'Crimcheck' online applications so the process will be different.

Don't forget that the same processes apply for our work in aged care and other parish activities, please check with Revd Kathryn or Elaine Fasken if you're not sure what you need.
