Holy Spirit Living Water

(♩ = 90-100)

1 Ho-ly Spi-rit, li-ving wa-ter, flow in us and set us free. Cleanse our un-be-lief and sor-row, wash our eyes and make us see. 2.3.4.5. Ho-ly Light.

1. Holy Spirit, living water,
flow in us and set us free.
Cleanse our unbelief and sorrow,
wash our eyes and make us see.
2. Holy Spirit, come as wind and blow the dust of death away.
Breathe the gift of life into us,
lighten hearts to laugh and play.
3. Holy Spirit, rushing fire,
burn with truth and justice here.
Catch our minds alight with passion,
perfect love that casts out fear.
4. Holy Spirit, come in silence, wordlessly to heal and bless.
Be the heart that prays within us,
fill the void with tenderness.
5. Holy Spirit, blessed Wisdom, teach us all of God's delight.
Offer us the wine of grace and make us children of the Light.

At Worship Today:

7.45 am (Book of Common Prayer)
Preaching & Presiding: Revd Dianne
Hymn: TIS 409 O Breath of Life, Come Sweeping Through Us

10.30 am (Contemporary Eucharist)
Preaching & Presiding: Revd Dianne

God of the covenant,
in our baptism
you called us to proclaim the coming of your kingdom:
give us courage,
as you gave it to the apostles,
that we may faithfully witness to your love
and peace in every circumstance of life;
in the name of Jesus Christ our Redeemer, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

TIS 450 Spread, O Spread, Almighty Word

First Reading: 2 Kings 5.1-14

1 Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man and in high favour with his master, because by him the Lord had given victory to Aram. The man, though a mighty warrior, suffered from leprosy. 2 Now the Arameans on one of their raids had taken a young girl captive from the land of Israel, and she served Naaman's wife. 3 She said to her mistress, 'If only my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy.' 4 So Naaman went in and told his lord just what the girl from the land of Israel had said. 5 And the king of Aram said, 'Go then, and I will send along a letter to the king of Israel.' He went, taking with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold, and ten sets of garments. 6 He brought the letter to the king of Israel, which read, 'When this letter reaches you, know that I have sent to you my servant Naaman, that you may cure him of his leprosy.' 7 When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, 'Am I God, to give death or life, that this man sends word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? Just look and see how he is trying to pick a quarrel with me.' 8 But when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent a message to the king, 'Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come to me, that he may learn that there is a prophet in Israel.' 9 So Naaman came with his horses and chariots, and halted at the entrance of Elisha's house. 10 Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, 'Go, wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored and you shall be clean.' 11 But Naaman became angry and went away, saying, 'I thought that for me he would surely come out, and stand and call on the name of the Lord his God, and would wave his hand over the spot, and cure the leprosy! 12 Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them, and be clean?' He turned and went away in a rage. 13 But his servants approached and said to him, 'Father, if the prophet had commanded you to do something difficult, would you not have done it? How much more, when all he said to you was, "Wash, and be clean"?' 14 So he went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; his flesh was restored like the flesh of a young boy, and he was clean.

Second Reading: Galatians 6.7-16

7 Do not be deceived; God is not mocked, for you reap whatever you sow. 8 If you sow to your own flesh, you will reap corruption from the flesh; but if you sow to the Spirit, you will reap eternal life from the Spirit. 9 So let us not grow weary in doing what is right, for we will reap at harvest time, if we do not give up. 10 So then, whenever we have an opportunity, let us work for the good of all, and especially for those of the family of faith. 11 See what large letters I make when I am writing in my own hand! 12 It is those who want to make a good showing in the flesh that try to compel you to be circumcised—only that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ. 13 Even the circumcised do not themselves obey the law, but they want you to be circumcised so that they may boast about your flesh. 14 May I never boast of anything except the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. 15 For neither circumcision nor uncircumcision is anything; but a new creation is everything! 16 As for those who will follow this rule—peace be upon them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

Gospel Reading: Luke 10.1-11,16-20

The Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go. 2 He said to them, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest. 3 Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves. 4 Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road. 5 Whatever house you enter, first say, "Peace to this house!" 6 And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you. 7 Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the labourer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house. 8 Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; 9 cure the sick who are there, and say to them, "The kingdom of God has come near to you." 10 But whenever you enter a town and they do not welcome you, go out into its streets and say, 11 "Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off in protest against you. Yet know this: the kingdom of God has come near." 18 Whoever listens to you listens to me, and whoever rejects you rejects me, and whoever rejects me rejects the one who sent me.' 17 The seventy returned with joy, saying, 'Lord, in your name even the demons submit to us!' 18 He said to them, 'I watched Satan fall from heaven like a flash of lightning. 19 See, I have given you authority to tread on snakes and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing will hurt you. 20 Nevertheless, do not rejoice at this, that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.'

MENS FORUM

Tuesday 9 July 2019 at 2pm
in Old Church

A don't miss amateur DVD viewing of "The Last Hurrah" where two aged (look alike Santa's) ride 1954 and 1965 British made motor bikes on an incident packed three months trek...

from Beijing to Arnhem (Holland) travelling through China, Mongolia, Russia, most of the 'stan' countries, Turkey and Europe, finally arriving in Arnhem.

Prepare to be amused, excited, moved, entertained and informed by an almost impossible dream that became a reality.

All are most very welcome to view some very Dutch courage.

Congratulations

Bp Paul Barker has announced that Revd Dianne has been appointed Archdeacon of Box Hill. Her collation will take place on Thursday 18th July at 5.10pm evensong at St Paul's cathedral. All parishioners are encouraged to attend this big occasion.
(This role is additional to her position here)

"3" Things from Parish Council Meeting (26 June 2019)

1. Mission Allocation. Parish Council approved the 2nd round of donation recommendations forwarded by Doug Hastings, Chair of the Mission Committee totalling $5,000. In 2019, $10,000 has been donated by our parish to church agencies and some local charities.
2. Thanksgiving / Stewardship Sunday: Services on Transfiguration Sunday (4 August) will be an opportunity to reflect on God's love to us. How can we use our time, talents and finances to support and grow the life and outreach of our faith community?
3. 3. Mission Action Plan 2020-2022. It's time to draft a new MAP plan for our Parish. This document sets our Vision, Mission, Values and Goals for the next 3 years. Please speak to Parish Council members if you have any ideas in the next 2 weeks.

SILENT RETREAT

A live-in time of silence

An Invitation to reflect on your prayer life.

- * An opportunity to discover that there is no line between the sacred and secular. All of life is holy.
- * An opportunity to explore innovative ways to pray.
- * Guided Meditations will assist reflection on your journey of faith and discovery.
- * Reflect on how we think, feel and respond to what lies within us and others with our God.

"We are fundamentally good. When you think about it, that's who we are at our coreWhat difference does goodness make? Goodness changes everything.. Goodness changes how we see the world, the way we see others, and most importantly, the way we see ourselves. The way we see ourselves matters, It affects how we treat people. It affects the quality of life for each and all of us."
