

Second Sunday after Pentecost

June 19, 2022

A Prayer

(scribbled on a piece of wrapping paper near the body of a dead child at Ravensbrück Concentration Camp).

O Lord, remember not only the men and women of good will,
but also those of ill-will.
But do not remember all the suffering
they have inflicted on us;
remember the fruits we have bought,
thanks to this suffering --
our comradeship, our loyalty,
our humility, our courage, our generosity,
the greatness of heart
which has grown out of all this,
and when they come to the judgement
let all the fruits that we have borne be their forgiveness.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

We acknowledge the traditional custodians of the land on which we meet, the people of the Kulin nation, and pay our respects to Elders past, present and emerging.

This parish is committed to Child Safety and complies with Diocesan and State requirements.
This is a shared responsibility of staff and parish. Please see the back of pew leaflet for contact details.

Dr Willie James Jennings is Associate Professor of Systematic Theology and Africana Studies, at Yale Divinity School, working particularly in the areas of liberation theologies, cultural identities, and anthropology. A Graduate of Calvin College (BA), Fuller Theological Seminary (MDiv), and Duke University (PhD), Dr Jennings held both senior academic and administrative roles at Duke University, before being appointed to Yale in 2015. Winner of numerous honours and grants, Dr Jennings' book The Christian Imagination: Theology and the Origins of Race (2010) won the American Academy of Religion Award for Excellence in the Study of Religion, as well as the 2015 Grawemeyer Award in Religion, the largest prize for a theological work in North America. His 2020 book, After Whiteness: An Education in Belonging, has also received international critical acclaim for its searing analysis of theological education. Dr Jennings is currently working on a systematic theology of creation.

SILENT RETREAT

A live-in time of silence

An Invitation to reflect on your prayer life.

An opportunity to explore innovative ways to pray.

An Invitation to grow in the kind of love that motivated Jesus to be a compassionate presence.

Guided Meditations will assist reflection to grow in this Love.

Reflect on the only shoes you can walk in are your own. Compassion calls us to be compassionate to others and ourselves with Jesus as model. A path of compassion may open before you.
