

Third Sunday after Pentecost

18 June 2023

Presentation of the Five Leaf Eco Award

This morning at the 10:00 AM service our parish will be the first Anglican Parish in Victoria to be awarded the Five Leaf Eco Award. The award will be presented by Jessica Morthope, Director of the Five Leaf Eco Awards.

Thank you so much to everyone for getting on board. Thank you especially to those who have helped to achieve each of the actions over the last 18 months.

The Social Justice group is running an Eco Stall - which was our special project for the Five Leaf Eco Award. Soap, reusable mesh fruit and vegetable bags, compostable bin liners and many more eco products will be available to purchase.

In our Parish all are welcome, all are accepted, all are valued and all are respected.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

We acknowledge the traditional custodians of the land on which we meet, the people of the Kulin nation, and pay our respects to Elders past, present and emerging.

This parish is committed to Child Safety and complies with Diocesan and State requirements. This is a shared responsibility of staff and parish. Please see the back of pew leaflet for contact details.

The Public Purse

The Government has far too many demands on its resources to meet the needs of Australians as it might wish. Its budgets are stretched, from $368 billion for nuclear submarines plus long-range missiles for defence to the ballooning costs of national disability, from the problems in public housing to the separate issues in hospitals and the health system. Around half of Australian households receive some sort of government payment. The demands are near infinite, the means are decidedly finite.

Join Archbishop Philip Freier and his guests – Grattan Institute CEO Danielle Wood and Phil Dolan, Executive Director of Melbourne University's Institute for the Future of Business – as they discuss more integrated ways of coping and what must be non-negotiable.
